April 26, 2014 Tennessee Tech. University will lead the community in Cookeville's first ever, Walk 4 Water. Service Learning student, Kara Vaughn has participated in this walk held in Nashville in previous years, but wanted to shadow Nashville's walk in Cookeville. She has traveled to locations where the clean wells are currently being built and participated in the building of such wells.

Be on the lookout for more information on this event.

Call 931.372.6120 for more information or email Kara Vaughn at kevaughn42@students.tntech.edu [2].
